Guardian Angles, Parish Offertory Envelopes

As 2025 approaches, the Offertory Envelopes for the New Year will soon be arriving. Over the past year, 100 boxes of envelopes have not been picked up by parishioners. As a result, we are limiting the number of boxes we will order for 2025. If your current envelope number is 1300 to 1400, you will be assigned a new number that will take effect as of January 1, 2025. Until then your current number is to be used for any of your financial contributions until December 31, 2024.

Your 2025 envelopes will include all of the regular Offertory Envelopes plus the Building Fund and all of the Archdiocesan Second Collections. When the new envelopes arrive anyone with a number from 1300 to 1400 please take a new box and fill in name and address completely for 4 weeks to ensure your new number is registered.

FundScrip - St. Andrew's, Brechin

Christmas is coming !!! And for your shopping convenience ... so is FundScrip

Again this year, we will be offering to help you with your Christmas shopping.

Through FundScrip, you are able to purchase gift cards at face value to use as Christmas gifts, or your everyday year-round shopping needs. And the best part is that our Church receives a percentage of every card purchased. A great way to fundraise... the easy way!

All orders are to be returned by Sunday November 17th in order to have them back in time for Christmas giving.

For Order Forms and Further Information please contact JoAnn Emons, at 705-484-5537

All Souls Day – 2 November 2024 Praying for the Souls of the Faithful Departed.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Lord, November 2nd is the annual Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, commonly known as "All Souls Day". As a family of believers, we pray in a very special way and intensity for those who have died and are awaiting entrance into heaven. Indeed, holy Mother Church recommends and encourages that we intercede for the eternal salvation of the faithful departed during the entire month of November. Praying for the deceased should never be seen as something morbid, or as a failure to "move on" with our own life from the death of a loved one. When we pray for those who have passed away before us, we contemplate the mystery of the Death and Resurrection of Christ; we acknowledge with personal and ecclesial faith that for Christ's faithful "life is changed not ended, and, when this earthly dwelling turns to dust, an eternal dwelling is made ready for them in heaven" (Preface I For the Dead, The Roman Missal, 2011); and finally, as members of the communion of saints, we petition the Lord for mercy and forgiveness on behalf of those who have died in the peace of Christ.

Often, I am asked: What can we do to help those brothers and sisters "who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection, and all who have died in your mercy" (The Roman Missal, EP II 2011). Allow me to suggest the following, stemming from the rich Tradition of Holy Mother Church: (i) have holy Mass offered for them; (ii) visit a cemetery and pray for all the Poor Souls; (iii) offer up a rosary for the most forgotten Souls in Purgatory; (iv) obtain an indulgence applicable to the faithfully departed.

Finally, when we gather to bury our loved ones or visit their graves praying for their eternal salvation, several truths come to the fore: the reality of death, what happens to our body and soul after death, the judgement of God, the salvation offered by Christ the Redeemer, our hope of eternal life in heaven, and most importantly God's mercy and love. While death is inevitable, God gives us something which death cannot touch - His divine life and sustaining power. During the month of November, I invite everyone in the Archdiocese of Toronto to earnestly pray for the dead, to be attuned to God's mercy benefitting from the sacrament of Confession, and to be attentive and rejoice in the great inheritance given us by our loving Father.
